CITY BUDGET FORUM WEDNESDAY

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): The City of Killeen will host a budget forum Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the Utility Collections Main Conference Room, 210 W. Avenue C. The public is encouraged to attend.

The city is developing the budget and plan of municipal services for the 2014-2015 fiscal year, which will begin October 1.

“The annual budget is extremely important because it sets the course for the services the city provides,” said City Manager Glenn Morrison. “The city staff and City Council work to develop the budget based on the input they receive from the public, so it is paramount that residents participate in the process.”

Those unable to attend the forum may submit comments and suggestions regarding the city budget via email to citybudget@killeentexas.gov.
